

RIVER HAMBLE HARBOUR AUTHORITY MOORINGS WAITING LIST RULES FOR APPLICANTS / MEMBERS

- The waiting list membership fee is £30 renewable annually each September.
- Members must confirm their intention to remain on the waiting list by completing an annual renewal form which will be e-mailed to customers by the Harbour Office in September of each year. (Available on the Website). Completed renewal forms must reach the Harbour Office by the 31st October each year.

NOTE: Failure to renew the application by the end of December of the same year will result in removal from the waiting list. NO REMINDERS WILL BE ISSUED.

Terms of acceptance – Applicants & Renewal

- Each year the applicant is asked to state (see over) whether they would accept a mooring if offered before 31st March in that year.
- Members do not have to be Hampshire residents.
- It is not necessary for a member to own a boat when applying for the waiting list, however, in the case of partnerships, moorings will only be allocated to waiting list members who can demonstrate that they have a substantial (50% or greater) shareholding in the vessel.
- The minimum age of a member will be 16.

Declaration

1. If offered a mooring by the Moorings Manager I understand that I will only be able to refuse the allocation if it is an inappropriate type of mooring for my intended vessel or other exceptional circumstances apply.
2. I understand that by indicating I am able to accept a mooring before the 31st March in that year (see over), subject to the provision of refusal at 1) above, should I subsequently decline two offers, then the moorings manager (for Harbour Master) reserves the right to remove my membership from the waiting list.

PAYMENT OPTIONS

- I enclose my cheque for £30.00 made payable to The Crown Estate.
- I have completed payment through HAMPSHIRE SHOP (On-line payment)
