

OUR GUIDE FOR FUSSY EATERS

It's not always easy to get your child to eat their greens... or mushrooms for that matter. How often do we hear, 'they're a fussy eater' so you send them to school with a packed lunch? When your child comes home with an empty lunch box, you breathe a sigh of relief. But many children give away their food, swap or dump it in our waste bins. So you don't always have the whole picture.

Here's our top 3 tips:

1 AVOID REWARDING WITH FOOD

Now we're not suggesting you bribe your child to eat their meal, but offering a great-tasting dessert if they eat their veg will not help either of you in the long run. And not pushing them to finish a whole meal can take the pressure off. Encourage eating a little more of that dish next time. Try stickers, games or earning days out. Anything that doesn't make them turn to sugary foods as a treat.

2 BE YOUR CHILD'S HERO

You can be the best role model for your child. They look up to you. So lead by example, and eat a wide variety of vegetables. Make sure vegetables are the norm for the dinner table and try sharing with positive comments.

3 KEEP TRYING

As children grow, so do their taste palettes. Don't assume they don't like a certain food because they've only tried it a couple of times. Apparently, it takes 15-20 times to really know so offer small amounts with encouragement and they may decide it's not so bad after all.
