

House Expectations

What sort of expectations do you think your parent(s) may need to put in place when a foster child comes to stay? (write below)

Here are some ideas of new expectations you may have at home

No phones in bedrooms

Doors closed when getting dressed

No Fighting

You must knock before entering

No keeping secrets

Only adults answer the front door

No Tickling