

Top Tips for Making Friends

Share interests

It can be really useful to find out their interests and also share some of yours. You might find you have plenty of interests and hobbies in common!

Showing them around your home can be a great way to start a conversation and get them used to where everything is

Show them around!

Listen well

It can be lovely to have someone to listen to you when big changes have happened in your life.

It can be really scary moving in with new people in a different home. It's important to be patient and allow space if they need it

Be Patient

Smile!

A smile can really help with making friends and show you'd like to be friends too!

It can feel strange at first for both of you, but putting some effort into being welcoming and showing an interest in the young person coming to stay with you can make it much nicer for everyone. You might find you get on really well and have loads in common!
