Our Autumn & Spring Term Secondary History

Secondary History County Network Group 2021-22: Revising your History Curriculum (webinar)

A series of three twilight virtual network meetings for those responsible for leading, managing and teaching history in the secondary school. The termly sessions will include presentations by leading Hampshire history teachers and guest speakers on how they are revising their history curriculum.

These networks will enable participants to:

- adapt their curriculum to address identified learning gaps created by recent Covid disruptions
- ensure their curriculum creates the right foundations for each Key stage
- update their curriculum using current historical scholarship
- build a broad and representative coherent history curriculum
- Ensure their history curriculum delivers on the vision and aims of their school curriculum.

Secondary History Challenge Group 2021-22 (Webinar)

This course is designed to develop and support teachers in addressing a current challenge for history teachers.

These termly afternoon webinar sessions provide an invaluable opportunity to learn from and work with the support of the Secondary History advisor and a leading history teacher to develop your curriculum thinking on historical diversity beyond tokenism and broaden your understanding of historical diversity. The new Ofsted history lead Tim Jenner emphasised the KS3 History National Curriculum requirement, 'for schools to think about the way the past and its people are represented' and, 'for students to explore the complex interrelationships between Britain and the rest of the world'. These workshops will support you in creating quality planning and resourcing to help you deliver a truly diverse history curriculum.

Please note: This is part 1 of the Secondary History Challenge Group and cannot be booked as a standalone event – Please see part 2 for details of the final session. Upon booking part 1 you will automatically be enrolled onto Part 2 of the course.
