(insert any additional information relevant to the application)

The following signs were erected on the Estate in 2010 to advise the public that Chiltlee Manor Estate was private land and that there was / is no intention to create rights of way or any lawful sports and pastimes on the Estate. These signs are still on the Estate.

There are two types of wording:

A. 1 x sign on end wall of garage block by entrance to the Midhurst Road car-park cut-through from the Estate. This was an earlier sign from 2003 which was left there because, when we introduced the new rights of way specific signs, which were very visible elsewhere on the Estate, it was not considered necessary to replace this one.

Wording: Chiltlee Manor Private Estate. Access via footpaths & roads only. Please keep off the grass.

B). 4 x signs with the wording:

Chiltlee Manor Estate. There is no public right of way across the grass. Please keep to footpaths. No cycling. Dogs to be kept on lead. CMRA Limited (Chiltlee Manor Residents Association). CMIL.

These 4 signs are placed as follows:

One at main entrance mounted in large brick pedestal

One at secondary entrance mounted in slightly smaller brick pedestal (beside Estate pond)

One set in concrete and iron stanchions in lawn beside main central pathway across the Estate

One set in concrete and iron stanchions in lawn beside pond-side footpath
