

The Hangers Way, Alton to East Worldham

HAMPSHIRE
COUNTRYSIDE
SERVICE

Distance:	2.5 miles
Start:	Alton

The Hangers Way is a 21-mile long-distance walking route

The route begins at Alton Railway Station, out into the lush Hampshire countryside, along a series of steep-sided wooded hills, known as “The Hangers”, through the pretty market town of Petersfield to finish at Queen Elizabeth Country Park.

The Way has been divided into eight sections, each providing a really good day out. Choose between quiet villages or bustling market towns, meadow picnics or cosy pubs, steep hills with exhilarating views or cool, peaceful woodland.

Directions

The Hangers Way begins at Alton Railway Station. This main-line station is also used by the Mid-Hants Railway (Watercress Line), which runs restored steam trains.

Alton lies on the main road from Winchester to London, which has been in use since Roman times. Before you leave the town, why not visit the Curtis Museum’s local history display or the Allen Gallery’s outstanding ceramic collection?

Follow the boundary of Monk Wood, where it is possible to see ancient earthworks and continue along farm tracks until you reach East Worldham. Here you can see a 15th century effigy of the wife of poet Geoffrey Chaucer.
