1. The decision:

1.1 It is recommended that:

- a) The joint strategic approach to capital maintenance expenditure across the education estate using Children's Services and Policy and Resources capital programme funding be approved.
- b) The joint condition priorities programme 2011-2012 formulated between Property Services and Children's Services be approved.
- c) The joint condition priorities draft programme 2012-2013 formulated between Property Services and Children's Services be approved, subject to confirmation of the 2012-2013 Capital Maintenance grant.
- d) The outline forward look joint condition priorities programme against any future Capital Maintenance funds 2013-2014 and 2014-2015 be endorsed in principle.

2. Reason for the decision:

- 2.1 The proposals in the report will ensure that the highest condition priorities are addressed within the available resources. These priorities are identified using the Corporate Risk Assessment and extensive knowledge of the Schools Estate to ensure that the County Council's buildings are secure and safe.
