Having looked at the dates on the proposals, I would like to suggest the following change

Sept start on 2nd September and not the 1st. Break up for Easter on 23rd March to allow families time to travel for Easter weekend and then add these two days onto the end of the Summer Term and break up on Friday 22nd July. This would allow Junior schools more time to process KS2 results and meet with parents to discuss as results are not published until mid July. This would also reduce the length slightly of the long Autumn Term for children, especially Year R who are just starting school. It would however, require an Autumn Term 2016 start date of the 5th September.
