

REPORT OF THE Cabinet
PART II

172. CHANGES IN RESPONSIBILITY FOR EXECUTIVE FUNCTIONS

1. Responsibility for Executive functions is set out in Part 2 Chapter 3 of the Constitution. Part 1 Chapter 11 paragraph 11.6.2 of the Constitution provides that responsibility for Executive Functions may be varied by the Leader at any time.

2. A Report setting out revised Executive responsibilities was presented to Cabinet on 21 September 2015. A copy of the revised Executive responsibilities, as reported to Cabinet, is contained at Annex 1 to this Report.

3. In the context of the services which are delivered by the County Council and the transformation programmes which are reshaping the organisation for the future, a summary of the changes is as follows:

- the expansion of the portfolio for Human Resources to incorporate corporate performance
- the separation of Adult Social Care and Health/Public Health into two portfolios to recognise the importance of these two distinct areas of service delivery, and the amount of work associated with both
- the expansion of the portfolio for Communities and Partnerships to have a corporate oversight of external and international policy and activities, and responsibility for the County Council's relationship with the Armed Forces
- the introduction of an Assistant to the Executive - Rural Affairs Champion to support the Leader and other Executive Members in the development and delivery of rural initiatives into the formulation of major policy

Part 2: Chapter 3

Executive Functions

Responsibility for Executive Functions

3.1 The following table sets out the allocation of responsibilities within the Executive. The portfolios are expressed in broad terms and may be varied, as provided for in the Executive Procedure Rules set out in Part 3 Chapter 2 of this Constitution.

3.2 The principles of responsibility are as follows:

- 3.1.1 unless a function, power or responsibility is specifically reserved to the County Council or a Committee of the County Council, the Executive is authorised to exercise the function or power.
- 3.1.2 the Executive collectively will be responsible for those decisions falling appropriately to it.
- 3.1.3 all decisions will be recorded.
- 3.1.4 if a decision is made by an individual Member of the Executive, this will be stated openly and clearly.
- 3.1.5 the Executive or individual Members of the Executive will normally be making Key Decisions, as defined at Part 3, Chapter 2, Paragraph 3 of this Constitution, or decisions which are significant (even though they may not be Key Decisions).
