

Aim, objectives, outcomes and measures

Services for everyone offer

Reducing inequalities: targeted interventions

CHILDREN, YOUNG PEOPLE AND FAMILIES
AIM
Children, young people and families have a choice of opportunities to access our services to support their wellbeing and personal development

Objective
The CCRA service offer increasingly meets the needs of children, young people and families

Objective
CCRA services offer a wider range of programmes and activities to support curriculum based learning in schools

Objective
The CCRA service offer increasingly meets the needs of:

- Children in care
- Disabled children and young people
- Disadvantaged children and young people

Outcome
More children and young people use CCRA services to support their wellbeing and personal development
Children, young people and families get more value from CCRA services

Outcome
More children and young people use CCRA programmes and activities supporting curriculum based learning
Children and young people get more value from CCRA programmes and activities supporting curriculum based learning

Outcome
More children and young people from the target groups use CCRA services to support their wellbeing and personal development

Measure
Participation rates of children and young people
Satisfaction of children and young people

Measure
Number of participants in CCRA programmes and activities supporting curriculum based learning
Positive feedback from children, young people and teachers

Measure
Number of participants in programmes and activities offered to the target groups
Positive feedback from children and young people in the target groups, their families, carers and teachers

