Description of Service / Policy

The Rail Position Statement provides a summary of the County Council's policy position on rail issues for Hampshire. This includes rail services and infrastructure both within Hampshire and where relevant, further afield.

Geographical impact* All Hampshire

Description of proposed change

The Rail Position Statement does not make any notable changes that would impact on users or staff.

Engagement and consultation

Has engagement or consultation been carried out? No

Although the draft Rail Position Statement has not been subject to a public consultation, it builds on work undertaken by Network Rail and others to identify necessary rail enhancements, which were themselves subject to a public consultation.
