

Dear Former Colleague,

I am contacting you as a fellow retired Police officer to see if you would be interested in joining the National Association of Retired Police Officers (NARPO)

For over 105 years, since its formation in 1919 NARPO has been safeguarding Members' rights, wellbeing and pensions.

Our focus is to help Members and their dependants with useful advice and guidance on a range of issues, including FREE advice on Police pensions and State benefits.

Whether you're a former officer or you're related to one, life after the Police can throw up many new challenges, from looking after your finances to looking after yourself.

For many people, retirement doesn't mean closing the door on employment, it provides an opportunity to start a new working life. NARPO can help you through our digital jobs board as well as links and signposting to help and advice. We can help you and your family enjoy your new-found freedom with a great range of member-exclusives from discounts on holidays and weekend breaks to special deals on cars, domestic goods and other useful products and services.

In addition, as a member of NARPO you will receive our quarterly magazine, NARPO News and our e-newsletter, New Horizons. Many branches also supply emails on many topics.

You will also be a part of Later Life Ambitions, which campaigns with others to encourage the Government to adopt policies that support older people to lead active and independent lives.

There are also lots of opportunities to get involved with NARPO, from supporting your local Branch to becoming a regional representative on the National Executive Committee.

So, how much? Well, you get all this and much more, for just £27.84 per year, equating to £2.32 a month. (2026 Rate)

If you wish to join, you can scan the QR code below, visit our national website www.narpo.org (see Branches) to join online or contact your local branch secretary. There are three branches in Hampshire not related to previous service regions.

Further information can be found at www.hampshirenarpo.org or www.portsmouthnarpo.org.uk

We look forward to welcoming you soon.
