Communication sent on behalf of Local Government Association

Please find attached Circular 301 which advertises the next round of training events which are all live for booking on the events page <http://www.local.gov.uk/events> For your ease of reference every event is linked via the date on the Circular which will take you directly to that particular event to book.

As always, these events prove to be very popular so, it is highly recommended that early bookings are made to avoid any disappointment.
